

Nancy Wolfe

August 12, 2023

Nancy Wolfe, a cherished wife, devoted mother, and adoring grandmother, passed away peacefully at the age of 86 on Saturday, August 12, 2023. Her departure leaves a void that can never be filled, but her legacy of love and care will forever remain in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know her.

Nancy's life was a testament to selflessness and compassion. As a mother, grandmother, friend, and registered nurse, she radiated warmth and kindness in every role she undertook. With a heart that knew no bounds, Nancy gave tirelessly, always going above and beyond to ensure the well-being and happiness of those around her. Her thoughtfulness, empathy, and unwavering love were the cornerstones of her character.

Hailing from central Pennsylvania, Nancy's journey of caregiving began when she discovered her passion for nursing during her college years. It was there that she cultivated the skills and compassion that would define her life's work. Fate brought her together with James Wolfe, her high school sweetheart, and their love story blossomed into a beautiful 64-year marriage. Together, they created a bond that was a testament to commitment and enduring love.

In 1965, Nancy and James embarked on a new chapter, moving to Blacksburg, Virginia, where they carved out a fulfilling life. Nancy's dedication to her nursing profession continued to shine as she worked at Virginia Tech Student Health, where she cared for countless college students with a nurturing spirit that made a lasting impact on their lives. The couple's passion for their community extended to their love for Virginia Tech athletics, becoming devoted Hokies and enthusiastically supporting their teams for over five decades.

Nancy's legacy of caring and nurturing will live on through her daughter, Carolyn, her son, John, and her five beloved grandchildren: Sawyer, Thomas, Niklas, Hayden, and Carson. Her memory will forever remind them of the profound impact a loving heart can have on those who are fortunate to experience its embrace.

A memorial service to celebrate Nancy's life will be held at a later date, allowing her family and friends to gather and remember the incredible woman who touched their lives. For those who wish to honor Nancy's memory, contributions can be made online at <https://www.vcom.edu/in-memory-james-f-wolfe> or sent to the James and Nancy Wolfe Memorial Scholarship at 2265 Kraft Drive, Blacksburg, VA 24060.

Nancy Wolfe's legacy is one of love, compassion, and care—an inspiration to all who were blessed to know her. As we say farewell to this remarkable woman, we carry her spirit forward by continuing to spread the kindness and empathy she embodied throughout her life.

“ I worked at student health with Nancy and had much admiration for her as she was kind, warm, and gracious, and yet very professional with the students and staff. Her standards were high and she gave her all in whatever she did ! Her warm and welcoming spirit will be missed ! I pray for comfort for the family at this time of great loss.

“ When we moved into Woods Edge 8 years ago, Nancy was one of the first to welcome us. She brought us a lovely dessert and visited with us and made us feel so welcome in our new neighborhood. We had the privilege of getting to know her as a friend and neighbor in the succeeding years and are so glad we got to know her and Jim. Our neighborhood is lesser by their loss. Our condolences to Nancy's family. Sharen and John Hillison

“ I am deeply saddened to read the passing of Nancy Wolfe, a gracious lady and a perfect hostess at Hokies home football games of the VCom suite when Jim was Prez of VCom. It hasn't been even one year since Jim passed . Th two were soul mates and now Nancy has joined Jim to be together forEver. My deep sympathies, prayers for comfort to the Wolfe family to bear this loss. Both Jim & Nancy will be much missed in our community.
