“ Polly was a friend before she became family and I have a lot of good memories from times we spent together. Some of the memories include her helping me get a waitress job as a teenager at Days Inn and her training me . Later I helped her at a t-shirt shop they owned and we spent many Friday and Saturday nights at Franklin County Speedway and the dirt track at Natural Bridge selling T-Shirts.

She was a great person with a wonderful smile who was loved by many people and will be greatly missed.

Thoughts and Prayers for her family and friends that are left to cherish her memory.
