

Patricia Hiatt Mason

October 20, 1944 - June 20, 2023

Patricia Hiatt Mason of Elliston passed away on June 20th, 2023.

She married Buddy Gene Mason at a young age and began building her legacy of love and a strong work ethic.

She worked at both Bassett and Walker and Ronile until she retired. Not being one to sit still for very long, she worked at Wal-Mart after retirement.

During her life, Mama brought about a great admiration from all of us kids. She was never one to back down and she taught and expected the same from us. Because of her unconditional love for us and the way she gave that to us, we knew she was always going to be in our corner no matter what and never let us be discouraged when life got in the way.

We learned from her to endure and to strive, and her legacy has been passed down to the next generation.

She left some big shoes to fill and some hearts that are broken, but grateful to have known her, love her and most importantly, to be loved by her.

We are her legacy and will forever miss her.

We are Buddy G. Mason, her children, James L. Mason, Eugene and Lisa Mason, Lena and Tommy Perry, Myndi Mullins and Jess Tatoy, and Joseph Mason, her grandchildren Jessica Bolyn (Brandon), Joshua Mason (Jenna) and Buddy Lee Mason (Haley), C.T. Perry (Abbi), Shelby Perry, Tangie Perry (Chuckie Dodd), Nicky Klein (Jackson), Stone Mullins (Tara), Brooklynne Mullins (Chad), Grymm, Lily, Baer, and Conall Tatoy, Rheygan and Irvin Flowers. She also leaves behind great-grandchildren, Matthew and Raelyn Bolyn, Luke and Sadie Mason, Braelyn, Brantley, and Brooks Perry, Dominic Dodd, and Lorelai Mullins.

She leaves behind her brother Sayford Hiatt and sister Vada McGlothlin and a friend who was a sister as well, Nancy Bandy.

This is your legacy, Mama. We love you from here to there and we look forward to hugging you again.

In lieu of flowers please make donations to your favorite charity.

“ I loved Pat like a sister and my best friend ever. We worked together. Played a lot. Laughed like a couple of kids. I have so many wonderful memories of her and her loss leaves a huge hole in my heart no one can ever fill. I pray for comfort for the family during this time of loss and for the years to come.

Pat always made me feel right at home at her house. She was a great cook and a sweet, kind lady. I remember her wearing this pretty green pantsuit to Josh and Jenna's wedding.

She was up on the dance floor with us dancing. She was happy and having fun.

I remember the wedding gift she gave to Josh and Jenna was a pull along red cooler filled with beer. Josh was so proud and said Memaw Mason knows what I like. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers. She will forever be your guardian angel watching over you from above.

“As a small child, I recall the first time I met her ... she was beaming with Love and Light. The Most Beautiful person I had ever laid my eyes upon.

Through the years of my youth I recall her tenderness, Motherly patience, heartfelt concern, understanding and genuine kindness towards all. Her Beauty and Compassion is timeless. She is, was and will always be a true inspiration.

I Love You Pat. My thoughts and prayers are with your family and Loved Ones within whom your Light continues to Shine.
