

Patricia Hodge Sweeney

February 13, 1935 - September 25, 2021

Patricia Hodge Sweeney went to be with her Lord and Savior on September 25, 2021. She was at home surrounded by her family. The daughter of the late William Henry Hodge, Birdie Sartan Hodge and the last of 13 children. She is survived by her husband of 69 years, John Calvin Sweeney and daughters: Sandra Clontz, Sherry (David) Parsons all Christiansburg, Va., granddaughters: Angela Alderman (Jay Mathis), Amy Kokkinakos (Steven), great grandchildren: Mackenzie Mathis, John Kokkinakos. In lieu of any acts of kindness the family would prefer that donations be made to the NRV Good Samaritan Hospice, 1160 Moose Dr., Christiansburg, Va. 24073. The deepest heartfelt gratitude to the angels at Good Samaritans who lovingly cared for her. Services were held privately. Arrangements by McCoy Funeral Home, Blacksburg.

“ Aunt Prissy was my favorite aunt. I loved her. She took care of me when my family lived in a trailer just down the hill from the Hodge home on the Elliot road. I have many wonder memories of times with here. She was a regular visitor to my Mother Lena wile in the nursey home in Blacksburg. Through her encouragement and prayers made Mom's time there more pleasant. Looking forward to that reunion in heaven. 2 Timothy 2:7

“ Pat Sweeney was one of the sweetest and kindest ladies I ever met. She assisted me with the birth of my third daughter and became a life-long friend. Marvin and I were at Alleghany Christian Church when Pat accepted Jesus as her personal Savior. She went down the aisle with her daughters on either side, all three rejoicing at her decision. Our whole family loved Pat and we look forward to meeting her in Heaven one sweet day. She will be so missed by her family for her encouragement and optimistic attitude. Her favorite phrase was "That's Good." Love to the family from Marvin and me.
