“ When I first moved to McCoy in 1067 Phyllis was our neighbor. I loved her laugh she was so loving and caring. She was the first person to give me the recipe for Red Velvet Cake. I had never heard of it before. Our oldest son loved it so much I baked it for him for his birthday for years. She would give me perms at her house. We are so sorry to hear of her passing. She was a wonderful lady. Kay and Al Sublett
