“ I have known Phyllis sense i was 14yrs. Old ,Phyllis and Wayne had always opened their home and their hearts to myself and my husband Joey. Phyllis always treated us as family and welcomed us every visit with open arms . We always had such fun in talking about family and ,sharing recipes and she always shared her words of the lord and it also was a source of love and comfort. Our family has truly lost a beautiful and loving soul. My love to her family and prayers.

“ I worked with Phyllis at Tech, briefly. She was always so kind and friendly with a sweet smile. A devoted Christian lady. My deepest condolences to her family.
