“ I worked in the car business and got the honor of meeting and calling R.B. Duncan a friend. We would eat lunch together at the Radford Auto Auction every Monday, carpool to other auctions and dealerships to buy cars every now and then. He was a character, loved to hear his stories. He was one in a million for sure. Prayers for his family and friends.

“ I am sure Mr. Duncan's family knows how special of a man he was but I just wanted to share with you my short encounters with such an extraordinary man. I first met Mr. Duncan like many in our hobby standing in line at a VA ABC. He followed in the door right behind me and was quick to start up a conversation about our favorite products, his being old taylor and mine old fitz. He was a very easy person to talk to and even easier person to get along with. He will be very missed among us bourbonites and will be a long time legend in our community. I wish I had more time with this man and got to know him better but I am grateful for the time I had with him. It was a pleasure meeting you Mr. Duncan, I hope you have all the pappy you can drink wherever you may be. Cheers to the Legend Mr. Duncan!
