“ Anne was a blessing to our family and to New River, Va. She loved God, my brother Phillip, her children, her grandchildren, her great grand children and her family. We would jokingly call her the ambassador of New River, because if there was a problem with phone service, garbage pickup or newspaper delivery, she was on it and got it resolved.

I have no doubt that Anne is with God, and although we will miss her here, we know she is in loving arms.

“ Ann.I remember the times you,Sara and I would meet on Christmas Eve, have dinner together. I remember when you made me attend New River College for nursing assistance with you and you get jobs sitting with the elderly. I thank you for that. When we would talk over the phone , you would always to keep my faith in God and rely on his word this as grandmother taught us. Ann I love you and tell everyone I said Hi. “ Word's cannot express the loving person that my Mother was to so many. Everyone that knew her enjoyed talking about the goodness of God. She kept her hand in God's unchanging hands and we need to do the same if we want to see her again. Love you Mom, Tammy.
