“I wish I could be there with all of you... Just know that you are in my heart, and we are lifting you up in prayer. There have been many moments of tears as I think about how sad it will be without Reggie and his smile. He made such an impact on the community-more than I ever could've guessed! In the midst of all the low points, I came up with a memory that I guess is appropriate for the season. When we were kids, we had these old Christmas records and an old record player that sat in our hall in the house on Lee St. near the front door. Reggie's favorite Christmas carol was 'The Little Drummer Boy' and he would play that song really loudly and MARCH all around the house acting like he was playing the drums and singing "rum-pum-pum pum!" I think he was like 10-12 yrs old. That memory made me smile and I hope it will do the same for all of you. God Bless you ALL. We love you.

“ Reggie, I was very lucky to have had you in my life. We texted/spoke almost every day and I called you 'Sunshine' as you brought sunshine to me constantly. You joked and started calling me 'Raindrop' and I loved that playful nickname from you. You had a way with making me feel genuinely cared about. I will miss our friendship and laughter. All I want to do is pick up my phone and text or call you and see your text back to me or hear your voice. I will never stop missing you and will never forget how amazing you were. Rest in peace my sweet friend and I will see you again. Huggsssss Sunshine.....Love Brenda

“ It is hard to think of BHS sports or VT football without thinking of Reggie. He was such a tremendous supporter and helper in so many ways. He never wanted attention, he just wanted to help the players he was so fond of to be successful. His loyalty to BHS and VT was unconditional. I am among the many that will miss and fondly remember my friend Reggie. This is a big loss for the Blacksburg community.
