“ I've known RB for a very long time. We use to sit around and talk about a lot of things. I'll miss our talks and you always picking on me. I remember our conversation the last time I seen you at Zaelyn's birthday party. I'm heartbroken as not only did I lose a friend, my grandchildren Autumn, Zayah, Zachary, and Zaelyn lost a pawpaw. And he loved them so much! Until we meet again tell daddy and Bobby I love and miss them so much and tell them I'll meet you all on the other side. My thoughts and prayers are with his family, and friends. ❤️

“ Homecoming In Heaven

My years have been many, my loved ones are gone, I miss them more every day, I'm ready to move to that heavenly home, I yearn for that day I can say. Take this ring from my finger, these shoes from my feet, Take all the worldly possessions away. Just leave me my Bible, a date I must keep, It's Homecoming in heaven for me! I'll kiss my mother, shake hands with my Dad, I know they'll remember their boy. We'll be so happy and I'll be so glad. As our cup runneth over with Joy! We look forward to reuniting! Bless you all!

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of RB, I so enjoyed being with him indoor and outdoor for church, never a time he didn't smile, always a kind word, pickin, sharing a kiss or two. We loved him and will miss him! Sending healing prayers and comforting hugs to the family. What a homecoming we have to look forward too!
