“ My condolences to Becky and all of Ronnie's family. It was nice to get to see him recently at the annual Pig Roast and have a few minutes to catch up. He was a true gentleman and was great to work with at CSES. He was always willing to teach me how to do things as he was skilled in so many areas. He will be sincerely missed.

“ Ronnie was one of a kind, and I enjoyed all those years working with him at CSES. He was easy going, charitable, and upbeat. A skilled instrument maker, fabricator, mechanic, machinist and all around good guy. Also, a savvy and skillful knock rummy player. We will all miss him. Love and sympathy to Becky and family.

“ Ronnie was a long-time co-worker, mentor, and friend to many of us. His easy manner and sense of humor made a great traveling and field-work companion. I'm sure that everyone who knew him over the years has their own favorite "Ronnie stories." I know I have mine and I won't forget them. God Bless you man. We're going to miss you a whole lot.
