Just a note to tell you how much we love you, and to thank you for being a friend, if I had a nickel for everytime we we invited to your house while Wanda was here I'd be rich. The 4th of July will always be dear to my family and I will think of yall when I see those fireworks, Thank you for the friendship, hot dogs and phone calls. You will be missed.

“ *Ronnie you were a big part of family gathering and all the reunions y'all you were such a big part of that
And the gatherings in your home at your home you and Wanda held the best cookouts and gatherings a girl could ever ask for where y'all's property was was perfect no houses around but on the one side a rambling river yalls property was comfortable and pleasing and y'all made y'all's home welcoming y'all hosted the best dinners and cookouts and gathering for the family I am so thankful for those memories that live within my heart I will hold them dearly to my heart for the rest of my life you were one of the best brother-in-law a girl could ever ask for.. I could not imagine life without you being one of my brother-in-law's Wanda sure did marry a good man she was crazy about you always never one day or two days but always everyday she knew she had a genuine man and she wasn't letting you go and she loved you with every bit of her heart and all the memories that you shared with us and the family and welcome us into your home and making us feel welcome there will always be grateful Go Rest High Ronnie Go Rest High .. Tell Wanda we're all looking forward to seeing her again someday and that we still love her as much as she was here on Earth and give her a big hug for us until we meet again may the Lord be with you..
