

Rosina McDonnell Carter

February 24, 1927 - March 10, 2025

Rosina McDonnell Carter, born February 24, 1927 in Memphis TN, died peacefully March 10, 2025 in Roanoke VA, after a brief illness. She was predeceased by her parents, Katharine Lewis McDonnell and Paul McDonnell, six siblings, infant daughter Mary Lewis Carter, and her husband of 63 years, Dean Carter.

Rosina grew up in Memphis and attended Maryville College in St. Louis as a history major. In 1948, Rosina and her sister Frances decided to travel for a year in Europe. On the ocean crossing, Rosina met Dean Carter, the love of her life. They courted in Paris and were married in 1950, the year they moved to Blacksburg, Virginia, where Dean established the Art Department at Virginia Tech. They were blessed with six children and a fulfilling life in Blacksburg.

Rosina continued to be an adventurous traveler. In 1954, the young family (with daughters ages two and six weeks) lived in Rome for a year, where Dean had a sculpture fellowship. Thereafter, the Carter family traveled frequently throughout the U.S. and abroad. A long-time member of St. Mary's Catholic Church of Blacksburg, Rosina was a generous donor, volunteer, and Eucharistic Minister. She was an avid bridge player and loved to swim, dance, and go to plays, operas, and museums. Rosina was an accomplished seamstress and weaver, and a member of New River Valley's Handweavers Guild. She was an excellent cook, member of a lunchtime gourmet group, and an active member of the Virginia Tech Faculty Women's Club. She hosted numerous cocktail parties and dinners for Art Department faculty, visiting scholars, students, and a large circle of friends. She also served as Dean's chief of staff, typing correspondence and keeping meticulous records for him. Her "Dear All" letters (one original with multiple carbons), became legendary among her siblings and her children. She and Dean were patrons of the arts, including the Blacksburg Regional Art Association. As Ut Prosim members, they gave generously to Virginia Tech, including endowing the Dean and Rosina Carter Scholarship in Art.

Rosina is survived by her children: Frances Stephens (Nicholas), Katharine Kerrane (Kevin), Clem Carter (Georgia), Tom Carter (Suzanne), Mary Farrell (Francis); eight grandchildren: Patrick Kerrane (Brittany), Michael Kerrane (Kate), Kate Andresen (Ulf), Dean Carter (Deepthi), Jessica Carter Fox, Thomas Carter, Carter Farrell, and Elizabeth Farrell; seven great grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews. She is also survived by her sister Patricia Hamer (Bob), and sister-in-law Janet McDonnell.

Remembrances may be given to the St. Mary's Catholic Church Building Fund, or to the Dean and Rosina Carter Endowed Scholarship in Art (884039), Virginia Tech Foundation, Blacksburg VA 24061.

Funeral services will be at St. Mary's Catholic Church on Thursday, March 20th, at 11:00 am, with the burial following at Westview Cemetery. Visitation will be on Wednesday, March 19th from 5-7 p.m. at McCoy Funeral Home.

“ Rosina was a brilliant hostess, an enchanting conversationalist, and an expert weaver -- it was the weaving hobby we shared that brought us together, but my late husband's time as a VT professor brought some other memorable opportunities to socialize with Rosina and Dean. She will be missed by her weaving friends in our regional guild and of course by anyone who had the privilege to know her. Rest in Peace, beautiful, spirited lady.

“ I was blessed to spend time with Rosina and share two faiths, especially since Dean was Methodist. I learned quite a bit of information about life and the Catholic Faith with my visits with her in the evenings. She was a sharp lady with many resources to offer a younger woman like me in my life. She will always be a part of my life and is greatly missed.

“ I will always cherish the many Sunset Beach vacations with the Carter family. Rosina would stop by to visit our beach house with a handful of figs she picked along the way. She loved figs.
