

Samuel Marvin Wall

June 12, 1947 - February 16, 2021

Samuel Marvin Wall, 73 of Blacksburg went to meet his heavenly father on February 16, 2021 at Montgomery Regional Hospital. He was born in Roanoke, Virginia on June 21, 1947 to the late Samuel Harding Wall and Kathleen Edna Wall.

He was preceded in death by his father, mother, and his eldest sister, Phyllis Mae Peachey of Blacksburg, Virginia. Marvin was a United States Veteran who served three years in Germany and he was a retiree of Moog Components group. Marvin was a member of North Fork Baptist Church in Blacksburg, Virginia where he served as deacon, Sunday school teacher, Sunday school superintendent, and a member of the choir. He was a loving man who devoted his life to serving the Lord, caring for his family and cultivating his family farm in Catawba Valley. He is survived by his loving wife of 49 years, Delores Bailey Wall of Blacksburg; brother Dennis Wall of Blacksburg; sister and brother in-law Sandra Wall and James Givens of Powhatan, Virginia. He was the devoted father of three children, son Travis Wall and wife Crystal Wall; son Preston Wall and wife Katie Wall; and daughter Alicia Wall and husband Patrick Slate. Marvin was fondly known as "Pappy" to his four grandchildren, Allison Stanley, Lillian Wall, Samuel Wall, and Joseph Wall.

A graveside funeral service will be conducted on Sunday, February 21, 2021 at 2 p.m. at Westview Cemetery with pastor Danny Collins officiating.

“ We grew up in a loving extended family. Our mothers were sisters. Marvin “Fuzzy” was always such a kind hearted and great person. We were cousins and the same age. I moved away, but it is easy to see from the obituary that he loved the Lord and his family. He served God, and was a true deacon servant and knight of God. So positive, fun and kind. A loving soul who we were all blest to know. He is smiling now looking down on us wanting us to have fun and be our best selves. E.W. Smith Jr.
