“ Frank I'm not sure when you and Sara joined the football event Staff, as it seems you both are in most all of my memories!! Sara was always so happy to see you and a hug was required... I have to say that she was one of the strongest, most kind hearted and funny ladies I have ever had the pleasure to know..Heaven received an angel in Sara and she will be missed by many..all my love Frank

“ I got to work with Sara at Rhino for two football seasons, and I'm really grateful I had that time! If you stood near her for two minutes, you'd witness several regular ticketholders come by to say hi and catch up, give her updates on their kids or grandkids or whatever. It didn't take long to realize how special Sara made everyone feel, whether they were Rhino staff or guests of the game. I also loved what a duo Sara and Frank were, how sweet and supportive they were of each other. My heart goes out to Frank and the rest of their family!

“ When I started at Rhino, I was a junior at Virginia Tech. I didn't know what I wanted to accomplish or even where I wanted to go after college. I took up event staff because I had been at school for several years and never actually got to experience any of the "hokie spirit" it claimed to have. When I started, I was very reserved which made it hard to make new friends. However, on my first day, Sarah didn't only make me feel welcome, she made me feel like family. She had a way of talking to people that made it feel like you had known her for years. Sarah and Frank became my honorary grandparents during my time at Rhino. They took me in and looked out for me when my family seemed to have dispersed. I pray that everyone at least once in their life gets to experience the kind of love that was received by the Lyons. R.I.P. Ms. Sarah.

“ Having gotten the opportunity to work with Sara during football/basketball, she always showed up with a positive attitude and a bright smile. Even when she wasn't feeling her best, Sara always gave it her all and made the people around her feel special. She will be missed, but will always have a space in our hearts.
