“ The first time I met my Step-Mother Sidney I was just 13 years old. I will remember her as a kind and loving soul, and a great cook. She always displayed her love and adoration for her Grandchildren, and she is at peace now with our Lord and my Dad, together forever.

*Love and prayers for our family.

“ Sidney taught me how to make and properly eat biscuits and gravy. That was life changing for me. I may die of a heart attack, but I'll be smiling and thanking Sidney with my last breath.
