“ Man, I heard of your passing away today and I was in total shock. Can't believe you left this world and going to miss you bud. I know you are going rejoice with your family and your friends but you are going to definitely be missed by many people down there. I remember you watching my kids grow up and always playing with them whenever you came to see my family and myself. Man, I hope you are watching over us and walking them streets of GOLD right now. Take care for now until we meet again soon hopefully and we love you.

“Got to know Stanley over the last few years at the auction house. He was always willing to help unloading and loading the van. He worked like he was a young man. I would tell him I would get it and he was right there and still going to do it. Always treating you like family. He will be missed. Prayers & Love to the Family
