“ Momma there are no words to describe you. Those who know you, know what I mean. Your love, kindness and respect never went unnoticed. I know the love you've shown me over the years and my children will forever be in our hearts and cherished. The day you legally adopted me, even though it was just a signed paper as you said. It still gave me something to be proud of, someone to be proud of me. You were the glue for me and JJ. You became such a big part of me. Our daily phone calls, our silly messages back and forth on messenger, our long talks. Just you not physically being here Momma is forever going to leave an emptiness in us all. I love you to the heavens and back. May you be at peace and always in our hearts. Until I see you again Momma fly high
