“ My heart breaks every time I think of you.. when I think of your life I think of how selfless you were, how much you have given to others before even thinking of yourself, I think of how much you loved your kids and grandkids, how much you have always been there when we were working on things and how much you loved to help with anything and everything, how much you loved your tractor, how much you loved going four wheeling and just spending any time with your family, how you would pull into our driveway unannounced and just blow your horn for us to come out and talk to you, how you loved to travel and experience new things in life, and loved to spoil your grandkids and oh boy did you spoil us rotten. I miss you so much it hurts I will forever remember THE BEST Pawpaw that ever lived I love you with all my heart ❤️
