“ I remember waiting in the hallway of our old church for Sunday School to let out. This is where I got to know this sweet lady, Tina! I enjoyed her smile and laughter and her hugs.
On earth, I will miss those hugs and her telling me she loved me!
My next hug will be with her in HEAVEN!

“ I was heartbroken to hear of Tina's passing. Her passion for the Lord and life was infectious. She lived life to the fullest and never took one moment for granted. She always stayed positive and never gave up hope. That is how everyone should live their life, with faith in God's plan, whatever his plan may be. Rest In Peace, dear Tina. You can now Rest In Peace in God's glory. You will be missed, dear friend. 🙏❤️

“ My loving childhood friend you will be so missed! Being the closest thing to a sister to me growing up, you will forever be in my heart and thoughts. Our laughter, sadness and joy may be gone but I know you are above with your Dad and Mikey just loving life and that you will forever be watching over everyone that you loved so much ❤️
