“ My Mother, Martha Snapp, and Vera Lou were best friends for many years - they were the "Thelma and Louise" of the 1960s - give them a pot of coffee and they could do anything from painting, and hanging wallpaper to cleaning houses. In 1974, after my Mother passed, Vera Lou helped my Dad at the shop for a few years. Nelson, Vera Lou, and Larry were always a part of our family. I am so sorry to hear of her passing - sending prayers of comfort for Larry and the family. Vera Lou will never be forgotten~
