“ So sorry for the loss of your precious loved one. Our hearts ache for you and with you, but our spirits rejoice . . . Bro Buck is Home at last. Your family has always been family to us for many years. Ed said he remembered coming to church with me at Shawsville and hearing Bro Buck saying Amen, Praise The Lord! He truly impacted our lives.

Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers and are here for you if we can help in any way. Heaven isn't very far away, be comforted.

Lisa and Family:

I am devastated to hear this news. This is Nesta Mitchem (Davis) from Wabun Congregational Holiness Church many years ago. If my husband and I can do anything for you please let me know. Reach out on Facebook. I am there. We would be glad to get coffee or soda, talk or set in total silence with you. Whatever any of you need. Deepest condolences to you all. Brother Yopp was a wonderful man of God.

“ I don't know the man but everyone needs a message to the family to let the family know he my be gone but he is in rest and never will we gone as long as someone keeps his memory alive by thinking about him as often by remembering the small things he done for everyone every time he was needed and there's a warm feeling in every one he met or was kind to that God has a Brand New Angle In Heaven at God's Side Watching All His Family And Friends From His Heavly Home With God

“ My heart is broke over the passing of Buck he has been my Pastor, and my friend for over 18 years. He was the most Godly man I have ever known and lived just as he preached to us on Sunday mornings. When my son was so sick in the hospital Buck never missed a day checking on him , He helped me with so many problems in my life that only him and I and the Lord to this day know about. Every Sunday morning I knew I'd be getting my hug with those words "Good Mornin Darling" . I remember his last service not even a week ago where he told us to always be ready to meet the Lord and that he wasn't scared to die that it would be a day to rejoice for him because he would see Lord and be totally healed. Buck I know your rejoicing but this hurts your church family so very much until one day we will see your face again we will cherish your wonderful memories that you have given us. RIP Buck
