“ Wanda was a precious cousin. The last time I saw her was at Warm Hearth more than 10 years ago. I was there with my Daddy and we learned Wanda was in bed there. We went in and received the warmest greeting you can imagine. While she was in pain and pretty much immobile she was a ray of sunlight.

“ I met Wanda years ago through her daughter, Carolyn. We teach school together. Our children were involved in choir and theater at their middle and high schools. I would see Wanda and Tiny at their performances. She always watched my daughter too, asked about her, and made nice remarks. We felt like she was family! I am sad I didn't get to tell her bye, but I'm glad she isn't in any more pain. Heartfelt love to her family!
