“ Such a good man now resting in our Lord's loving arms. Mr. Eakin's mom and dad fed my dad, Ralph Brillhart, and his brothers several meals during their childhood in the early forties. A time of war and the great depression, they played together on the "Back Road" as little boys. Such a caring man, from a loving family. You will be missed Mr. Eakin. I know you and dad are having a blast in Heaven. Prayers of comfort are being prayed for his family.
