“ This is truly a sad day. My condolences to Wayne's family. Wayne was truly a unique individual. He always gave 100% of himself regardless of the task undertaken. Wayne was one of those special people who was both incredibly intelligent as well as willing to share his knowledge with those around him. Those two traits are not always found in a single human being. While I was always in awe of Wayne's intelligence, he also had an amazing sense of humor. He will be sorely missed.

“ Wayne was a Godsend to me when I started as a Building Automation tech for the DSA. I been in that position for the past 8 years, and any time I needed help Wayne was right there. In the last few years, we talked about getting himself and his wife out to the farm to go horse back riding. It never worked out for us to go. I hate that we never made it happen. With Wayne's passing, I truly feel like I have lost someone very special to me. Wayne was more than a friend or a teacher If I was upset about something, just talking to him he had a way of calming me down to keep me from doing something stupid. For the past few year, I've gotten him a few deer. I think he made most of it into Jerky for his family. I regret that my wife never got to meet Wayne. Even though she has made him cookies and zucchini bread. I regret never getting to meet his family and now I will meet them under the worst time of their life. My heart aches for my loss, I can't imagine what they are going through. If there is one good thing about this, Wayne is out of pain and over the past year or so he had a lot of pain. Wayne I will miss you terribly, but you're passing makes me want to live and be a better person so once again I can see you and talk to you. I love you Wayne and keep me a seat. I'll see you soon.

Such sweet memories of Wayne as my youth leader at Belview. Adventures and stories. Was so saddened to hear of his passing. Praying the Lord's comfort over the family.

Tanya and Breana, I am so sorry I did not see Wayne's obituary sooner or Dave, my husband and I would have been at the visitation. Breana, your Daddy was certainly proud of you. I remember you running to jump in his arms. Dave worked with Wayne when he would be on VT campus working. I know you will miss him terribly, but know he is looking down smiling.

Love,

Phyllis (Mrs. Rettig)
