“ Billy was a different breed. I got him trouble a lot growing up, and he still was there when I needed him. He loved watching football and wrestling, but his favorite was watching NASCAR when Earnhardt Sr was driving. He was a hard worker when he was able, and a hard player until he could no longer. He's going to be greatly missed by all who knew him. I'm thankful for his extended family at the nursing home and the love they showed us during this time. I'm glad he has found peace. I love you Billy ❤️ ~ Becky
